GENOA TOWNSHIP CITIZEN POLICE ACADEMY ALUMNI ASSOCIATION RULES OF CONDUCT

POLICY: It is the policy of the Genoa Township Citizen Police Academy Alumni Association, that all members comply with the Rules of Conduct as herein stated, with the additions and amendments of these rules that may be promulgated, with all other orders and directives, either verbal or written, which may be issued by Police authority. The violation of any rule of conduct, procedure or lawful order, whether written or verbal, may result in expulsion from the Association.

UNBECOMING CONDUCT: Every member shall conduct him/herself at all times, while representing the Association, in a manner which reflects most favorably on the Genoa Township Police Department and the Association. This pertains to the perceptions of both citizens and co-members. Conduct unbecoming a member, shall include that which tends to bring the Association and/or the Genoa Township Police Department into disrepute, reflects discredit upon a representative of the Association, or that which tends to impair the operation or efficiency of the Association or member.

COURTESY: Members shall be courteous to the public and to co-members. He/she shall be tactful, shall control his/her temper, and exercise utmost patience and discretion, and shall not engage in argumentative discussions, even in the face of extreme provocation. While acting as a member of the Association, he/she shall not use coarse, violent, profane or insolent language or gestures toward the public or fellow members. No expression of any prejudices, or use of language which might be insulting, or demeaning to the public, or fellow members concerning race, sex, religion, politics, national origin, lifestyle or similar personal characteristics will be tolerated.

CRITICISM: Members shall not criticize, or ridicule the Genoa Township Police Department, or any other agency, by speech, in writing or by expression in any other manner, when such speech, writing or other expression is defamatory, obscene, unlawful, or exhibits a reckless disregard for truthfulness.

IDENTIFICATION: Members are prohibited from using their identification cards for personal or financial benefit, or as a means of obtaining privileges not otherwise available to them, or for avoiding consequences of illegal acts. Members may not lend their identification cards to another person, or permit it to be photographed or reproduced.

COMMUNICATION: Members shall not address a public gathering, appear on radio or television, prepare any article for publication, and act as a correspondent to a newspaper or periodical acting as a representative of the Genoa Township Police Department.
